- g. Going to, attending, or returning from, an official school, religious or other recreational activity supervised by adults and sponsored by the city, a civic organization or another similar entity that takes responsibility for the minor;
- h. Exercising first amendment rights protected by the United States constitution, such as the free exercise of religion, freedom of speech and the right of assembly; or
- i. Married or had been married or had disabilities of minority removed in accordance with state law.

IV. DISTURBING THE PEACE

A. Excessive Noise Prohibited: Noise which due to its volume, its duration, or its location disturbs, injures or endangers the comfort, repose, health, peace, or safety of persons not voluntary listeners thereto is hereby declared to be excessive and inimical to the welfare of the citizens of the municipality. It is unlawful for any person to make, continue, or cause to be made, or allow to be made on any premises or any public place or public right of way from any radio, CD player, tape player, musical instrument, phonograph, or sound amplifier or similar device, any excessive, loud, unnecessary or unusual noise, whether that device is free standing or part of a larger sound system mounted to a vehicle. Specifically prohibited is the playing, using, operating, or permitting to be played, used or operated, any device for playing, producing, or reproducing sound at a louder volume than is necessary for the hearing of persons who are voluntary listeners on the premises, or in the building, room, or chamber in which the sound is being played, produced, or reproduced.

- 1. Persons engaged in school related or sports related promotional activities and lawful parades shall be exempt from the provisions of this section for the duration of the activity.

B. In addition to the above, it is unlawful for any person to:

- 1. Engage in prolonged shouting, yelling, hooting, whistling, singing, or playing of music or musical instruments loud enough to disturb the peace, quiet and comfort of persons who are involuntarily subject to such noise, between the hours of eleven ten o'clock (110:00) p.m. and seven o'clock (7:00) a.m.

- a. Persons engaged in school related or sports related promotional activities and lawful parades shall be exempt from the provisions of this section for the duration of the activity.
 - b. Brief celebratory displays of noisemaking at twelve o'clock (12:00) midnight on New Year's Eve or on other official holidays shall not be considered violations of this section.
- C. Construction Repair: No construction/repair of buildings, including site excavation and grading, shall take place between the hours of ten o'clock (10:00) p.m. and seven o'clock (7:00) a.m., except in case of urgently necessity in the interest of public health and safety and with the permission of the Public Works Director.
- D. No chainsaws and/or other woodcutting equipment capable of producing noise, or gasoline or electric powered lawn care equipment, shall be used between the hours of ten o'clock (10:00) p.m. and seven o'clock (7:00) a.m. in any residential area, regardless of the underlying zoning district.
- E. Exceptions: The prohibitions against disturbing the peace as set out in this section shall not apply to the following:
- 1. Emergency work;
 - 2. A governmental agency acting within the scope of its functions (e.g.: snow removal);
 - 3. Utility work performed by employees of utility companies within the hours permitted for construction set out in this chapter;
 - 4. Such other work or activities as may be authorized by the building official, public works director, or the mayor.
- F. Unlawful Assembly: It is unlawful for two (2) or more persons to assemble together for the purpose of disturbing the peace or for the purpose of committing an unlawful act and not to disperse upon the command to do so by an officer. It is unlawful for any person, except public officers and persons assisting in preserving the peace, to remain present at the place of such lawful assembly.
- G. Injury to Property: It is unlawful for any person to wilfully or maliciously destroy, injure, deface, mutilate, remove, ~~upH-pull~~ down, break, or in any other manner interfere with public property; or any real or personal property belonging to, or under the control of, any person, or any public entity.

V. GRAFFITI

- A. It shall be unlawful for any person owning or occupying property within the city, after receiving written notice from the City, to fail to remove or obliterate any graffiti, as defined in this chapter, from or on any structure located upon any property within the city, when the graffiti is visible from the street or other public property, or which is visible from private property whose owner thereof has requested the removal of the condition which is considered a violation of this chapter.

- B. Abatement: Graffiti, as defined in this chapter, is hereby declared to be a nuisance and abatement procedures shall be followed as outlined in §_____of the Nibley City Code.

VI. LITTERING

- A. Placement In Receptacles: Persons placing litter in authorized receptacles shall do so in such a manner as to prevent it from being carried or deposited by the elements on any street, sidewalk or other public place or on private property. Where authorized receptacles are not provided, such litter shall be carried away from the public place or private property and properly disposed of elsewhere, as provided herein
- B. It is unlawful for any person to wilfully or negligently throw from any vehicle or from any other location, or to place or deposit upon or along any street, alley, public thoroughfare, or public property, or private property without the consent of the owner, any debris, paper, litter, glass, can, nail, tack, wire, trash or garbage, lighted material or other waste substance.
- C. No vehicles shall be driven or moved on any city right of way unless the vehicle is so constructed, loaded or covered as to prevent any of its load from dropping, sifting, leaking or otherwise escaping therefrom.
- D. No vehicle loaded with garbage, swill, cans, bottles, wastepapers, ashes, refuse, trash, rubbish, waste, paper, cartons, or any other material susceptible to blowing or bounding from a moving vehicle, shall be moved or driven on a city right of way unless the load is covered with a sufficient cover to prevent the load or any part of it from spilling, blowing, sifting, or otherwise leaving the vehicle and being deposited onto the right of way or the surrounding property.
- E. No person shall operate any vehicle so as to track or drop mud, stones, gravel, dirt, sand or other similar material on any city street, alleyway, or other municipal right of way except as provided in subsection D of this section.
- F. Lakes And Fountains: No person shall throw or deposit litter in any fountain, pond, lake, stream or any other body of water in a park or elsewhere within the city.

VII. HANDBILL REGULATIONS

- A. No person or business shall post, stick, stamp, paint or otherwise affix, or cause the same to be done by any person, any notice, placard, bill, card, poster, advertisement or other paper or device calculated to attract the attention of the public upon any sidewalk, curb or any other portion or part of any public way or public place or any lamppost, electric light, telegraph, telephone or railway structure, hydrant, shade tree or tree box, or upon the columns, trusses, girders, railings, gates or other parts of any bridge or other public structure or building, or upon any pole, box or fixture of the fire alarm or police telegraph system, except such as may be authorized or required by the laws of the United States or state, and the ordinances of the city.
- B. Throwing Or Distributing In Public Places: No person shall throw or deposit any commercial or noncommercial handbill in or on any sidewalk, street or other public place within the city nor shall said handbills be deposited in or on any vehicle; provided, however, that it shall not be unlawful on any sidewalk, street or other public place for any person to hand out or distribute, without charge to the receiver thereof, any noncommercial handbill to any person or occupant of a vehicle willing to accept it.
- C. Prohibiting Distribution Where Properly Posted: No person shall throw, deposit or distribute any commercial or noncommercial handbill on any private premises, if requested by anyone thereon not to do so or if there is placed on said premises in a conspicuous position near the entrance thereof a sign being the words "No Trespassing", "No Peddlers or Agents", "No Advertisements", or any similar notice, indicating in any manner that the occupants of the premises do not desire to be molested or to have their right of privacy disturbed or to have any such handbills left on such premises.
- D. Distributing At Private Premises:
1. No person shall throw, deposit or distribute any commercial or noncommercial handbill in or on private premises which are inhabited, except by handing or transmitting any such handbill directly to the owner, occupant or other person then present in or on such private premises.
 2. In case of inhabited private premises which are not posted, as provided in this section, such person, unless requested by anyone on such premises not to do so, may place or deposit any such handbill in or on such inhabited private premises if such handbill is so placed or deposited as to secure or prevent such handbill from being blown or drifted about such premises or sidewalks, streets or other public places, and except that mailboxes may not be so used when prohibited by federal postal law or regulations.
 3. No person shall throw or deposit any commercial or noncommercial handbill in or on any private premises which are temporarily or continuously uninhabited or vacant.

- E. Exception For Mail And Newspapers: The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the distribution of mail by the United States, nor to newspapers, except that newspapers shall be placed on private property in such a manner so as to prevent their being carried or deposited by the elements on any street, sidewalk or other public place or on private property.
